Tourist Information Centre Murghab was created in June 2011 within a project for the development and the promotion of fair and united ecotourism.

Tourist Information Centre Murghab is managed by a self-help group which consists of 11 members elected by the local communities.

The centre gathers and provides free information needed by the visitors and the tourists to discover and to visit the region, including guesthouses, home stays, yurt stays, drivers and vehicles, guides, interpreters, craftsmen, horse trekking, rent of donkeys, camels, yaks, bicycles, etc.

The centre has the following aims:
- Preserving and promoting the natural and cultural heritage, and at contributing to the sustainable socio-economic development in the Pamir high mountain region.

The centre is situated in the centre of Murghab town, daily open from May till November. Information by e-mail and tel.
